Tribute Wall

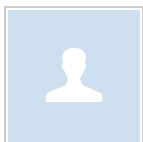

“ It is hard to imagine this world without Al, a sweet guy with a wonderful smile, always ready to help, to lend a hand, say the right words, never asking for anything, always giving and kind. God felt his work here was done and He called him home, welcoming him with loving open arms, at peace in his eternal home but not forgotten by his many friends, his memory living on, missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him including his pets that were dear to him.##imported-begin##Doris A. “ We were so sorry to hear about Al's death. He was a fixture in our neighborhood. Walking his dogs, Rusty and Brandy, was a daily thing that gave us the opportunity to meet him. When Greg fell outside and broke his hip, it was Al that happened upon him and started the call for help. We will be forever grateful to him for that deed. He loved his Lord and I was glad for the times we were able to talk about Him. Again, we are sorry for your loss and you are in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Denise and Greg
