“ So sorry to hear of your passing, Danny. I was just a second grader when you were in high school, but I'll always remember my handsome teenage heart throb cousin who reminded me of Shawn Cassidy! I last remember seeing you at my brother Allyn's funeral a few years ago. Thank you for extending a kind hug to me and showing how much you cared. I hope you will say hello to him for me. We'll miss seeing you, but will always keep you in our prayers and in our hearts. Deepest sympathy to Debbie, to Dan's children and to the rest of his family. God Bless you all! With love, your cousin Vickie Mosher (Martin).

“ Fond memories of the neighborhood kids playing in the sprinkler, the slip & slide and those little inflatable pools with my younger sisters (Christina & Shawn) and Danny and Debbie. And at night you all would try to catch those fireflies! Was fun being your next door neighbors & babysitter; your family was great. Sorry to hear of Dan's passing over to the "other side". I know he will be missed by all. Barbara Smith Squire.

“ How do you share a childhood sweetheart memory? We lived next door to each other for all of our school years. Playing Army, Riding Bikes, Swing on his swing set, playing in each other basements, first dance at Heatherdown's Park, and being a brother to me. (I didn't have one) Our paths separated during his first marriage, but we grew up together in a great neighborhood. How do you say a final goodbye- Ya don't, Ya just say see ya soon. My prayers are with his family.

“ I'm gonna miss you Uncle Dan. I'll never forget the memories we shared together, going to car shows and the selflessness you always showed to help me when I had no one else to help me fix my endless problems with practically every car I've ever owned. You were a great person and had the biggest heart of everyone I've ever known. Things will not be the same without you. "Talk to you after a bit." Nick
