“ My deepest condolences to Greg's family and friends. I worked with him years ago and always enjoyed the friendly banter we had. I remember him fondly and was heartbroken to hear of his passing earlier today. He was always so good natured and just such a nice young man. My heart goes out to those who loved him.

“ I moved in next door to Greg a year ago this past October. I have a Pit Bull named Zoey that always barked her head off whenever Greg was in the back yard either cutting grass or pulling weeds. He was very patient with her and always tried talking to her in a reassuring manner, even though she was about 3 feet away just carrying on. She was finally warming up to him to where he could do whatever he was doing in the yard and she just watched him, wagging her tail and waiting for a treat he sometimes gave her. He was known to cut my grass and/or shovel my walk after a snowfall, just because. My heart goes out to your family for your loss. He was a good man, a good neighbor and I'm sure all in the neighborhood will miss him.

“ I really wanted to pay my respects in person today. But I messed up at the 280 split & started over. Then Mapquest told me exit 303B. Either they were wrong, or I just missed it.

I will miss you as much as I miss my son, Brian. All the times together: Fritz & Alfredo's, Chinese restaurant, summer cook outs, TTA together, and working on each other's Trans Ams together. (I never saw the finished product from either one of you) You were soft spoken and kind; but you were always the go-to guy. If anyone had a problem, you would sit down and figure out the best way to handle it or fix it. You always helped others. You are the only one who continued to stop by to check on how I was doing, and ask if I needed anything. I hope you know how much i appreciated that. Like I said, you were such a good and kind hearted person. My deepest condolences to your family. I understand it. You told me Brian was your best friend. I can picture you two cruising around together in your TA's with a big smile on your face.

“My heart is saddened. Greg was a good neighbor. Greg was a good friend. We were neighbors his entire life. I can recall Greg, Jon and Chris as kids shoveling their snow, and then helping their neighbors shovel snow. Later in life, another neighbor had a flat tire in the middle of the winter....blowing snow...ice...chill factor below zero...here comes Greg...he said to me "what are you working on? Can I help?" We tried EVERYTHING, and he did not want to quit, but the cold beat us. The car finally had to be towed, but I was sure glad I did not fail alone. Recently in the spring, the grass needed to be cut once every 3 days to keep it at bay. He had a hard time keeping up with his grass during the week, so I would cut part of his lawn to help him during the week. The following Saturday I was going fishing and noticed the grass needed to be cut again already. By the time I got home, he had cut my lawn. I could tell tons of the same types of stories about Greg. He had this special quality about him. Even though he had his own "car wars", he was willing to give his time. Every car, boat, yard, home project I would do, here would come Greg asking "what are you working on? Can I help? Need some tools?". He also gave me a compliment when done "good job, looks good". We had so many long conversations about everything under the sun. He always gave a wave and smile when we saw each other, and always gave this "old man" more respect than I deserved. I was blessed and privileged to have Greg as my good neighbor, my good friend.

“ I send my deep condolences to all those who were lucky enough to really get to know Greg, and who therefore unfortunately will greatly feel his loss. His slow, deliberate smile that he would deliver always elevated me in my day. Greg's thoughtfulness ran deep, and his gears were always turning. He truly cared about his work and those around him.

Greg has left behind many friends and colleagues at Link Engineering, and we will remember him fondly.

“ No words can describe my sadness knowing that Greg will not be next to my cubicle. Thank you for raising a son who is thoughtful and kind. I am honored that he sought out my opinion whether it is about work or personal matters, but most of all he shared how much he loves you. Thank care of that lemon tree.,it took him awhile to decide the perfect gift and settled on the lemon tree. As I listen to him when he finally decided on the gift. His faced light up like a little kid as if it is christmas and all I said was you are goofy. No words came from him just a big smile. I will surely miss your son always made me feel special. May the Lord Jesus watch over you, and help you get through this difficult time.

“ I am still in shock and so very sad to hear of Greg's sudden death. He was at my house many times for get togethers. I've known him since he was a young teenager. He was always a great kid and grew up to be a very nice man. My family and I will miss him tremendously. Condolences to his family and and loved ones. I hope they have great food, great desserts, and White Russians where you're at. We already miss you.

“ I was both shocked and saddened to hear of Greg's passing. Greg was a coworker of mine and I always enjoyed our time together. At times, we would sit together on a break and a group of us would all make each other laugh with our stories. Greg was always kind to me and I will miss him. I pray that God will comfort the family and all who knew Greg.
