“ So sorry to hear of Jim's passing.
I knew Him when he was a pharmacy customer at Kroger and I was his pharmacist. He was a treat to see when he came in. My brother was his neighbor on Townley Ave. and I would often see him when I was visiting. He was one of the good guys and we'll all miss him. Prayers are with him and his family. Much love.

“After high school and during the recent decades of the World Wide Web, Jim would sometimes have problems keeping in touch with his classmates. He would then telephone me raising a fuss about progress. Because I once repaired IBM Key punch machines, he figured I knew everything.

"Howcum I am not getting any of my classmate eMails?" he would say. "Because all them are now considered SPAM by your security software," I would reply. "Look in your SPAM box!" And there he found them.

But one day Jim turned serious. I listened hard to try and figure out why. "You know, I am Roman Catholic, and when I die, I still have to go through Purgatory." he says.

"Oh man, that's easy!" I says. "Turn Lutheran. With Martin Luther, you get a free pass out of Purgatory."

"Yeahbut," he says, "With Martin Luther I will feel funny eating meat on Friday."
