

Janet Ruth Bowles

February 12, 1939 - December 8, 2020

Janet Ruth Bowles of Rossford, Ohio went home to heaven on December 8, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on February 12, 1939 in Toledo, Ohio, to Harvey and Emily Bowles. She will be remembered for her amazing faith and commitment to Jesus Christ. She is survived by her beloved siblings, Harvey Bowles and Judi Owen, loving in-laws, Judy Bowles and Tad Owen, devoted nieces and nephew, Sarah (Dave) Gonias, Emily (Clark) Conley, Lane (Karen) Owen, great-nephews, Adam (Ella), Cole, and Luke Gonias, Evan, Carl, and Joseph Conley, Wolf and Rex Owen, and great-niece Grace Conley (Jim Farley). Janet will be greatly missed by many wonderful cousins, special friends, and her loving family of God at Dayspring Church. We were all richly blessed by her love and constant prayers..

The burial will be private, but a celebration of life will take place in the summer, when we have moved through this pandemic and can reminisce together and rejoice in a life well-lived.

In lieu of flowers, Janet's memory could be honored through a donation to Dayspring Church, Bowling Green, OH or a charity of the donor's choice. The Coyle Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

“ We were blessed by Janet’s love and friendship at Dayspring Church for many years. We rejoice with her as she now is whole and healthy in the presence of Jesus, our wonderful Saviour.... We will miss her greatly. Praying the Lord mends your broken hearts that He alone can do. Sending love to her family at this time of loss.

“ My best memory of Janet is the summer we were both at Lake James Christian Assembly serving as dorm mothers during high school week. Our minister, I believe it was Mike Grange, was the dean that week so he had to get volunteers from his church, the Boulevard Church of Christ to serve as staff members that week. Now neither one of us were married or had children so it was quite an experience for both of us! But we had a lot of fun and became good friends because of our mutual experiences that week! We lost touch with each other when years later my husband and I moved to Florida with our two children. Every year or so I would be back in Toledo during the summer and go to church at Boulevard. It was always good to see long time Christian friends. I don’t know if Janet had moved by then or not but have more memories of talking to her sister who was married to Tad Owen. I am so sorry for Janet’s family as they have lost a very dear member of their family!

“ My dearest Janet, sister in the Lord... what ever will I do without her... such a genuine and beautiful soul, always willing to drop what she’s doing to help, she loved SO deeply. We could talk for hours upon hours about the Lord, politics and prophecy, our pets (sweet Alex and Annie she missed so much) and how we believed they’d be with us when we went home, or just life in general. There was never a dull moment or a loss for words when we were together. The very first time we met was when she made a hospital visit to me, things were grim but she spoke and prayed life into me. She was a friend that if you hurt, she’d hurt. If you laughed she’d laugh... OH, how we’d laugh! I hear her voice in my thoughts and memories, I feel her hugs when I’m at a loss, I imagine what she is experiencing right now and visualize her as she sees what she’s lived for! “Receive your crowns my friend death doesn’t live here anymore”. Until we meet again, I will be deeply missing her as I know many others will as well... I lend my sympathies to her earthly families as we grieve her loss together.

“ Oh what a christian enthusiast cousin Janet!!! Over the past many years she would reach out to me with the 'latest' of Hughes family news. Never without sharing all the interesting things going on with Bud or Judy's family. What an incredible sister. And for the rest of us cousins - what a facilitator of what 'love' is really all about always putting herself out there.

I will miss you dearly Janet - just hearing the energy in your voice made every phone call an emotional pick-up.

Bud - Judy and your family's we have lost a life's treasure.

Janet was such a wonderful Christian friend. We have known Janet for many years and the family also. It has been our blessing to have Janey as part of our life. I know that she is with the Lord now. We will miss Janey so much. Our condolences too the entire family. Thank you Lord for blessing us with this wonderful person. In Christian Love from Traudy and Danny
