“ When I called my daughter who has not seen Janet for many many years, her memory of Janet was that Janet always had a sweet smile. I share that memory. What a wonderful way to be remembered.

“ Janet and Harvey were the first people that Eleanor and I met at our first visit to Church of the Redeemer in 1961. They were our good friends ever since.

“ I have many fond memories of Aunt Janet over the years. She and Uncle Harvey were always kind and good to me and my family. I will always remember the family gatherings playing pool in the basement. Lot's of great memories. My condolences to Nancy, Margie and Barb's families. Chuck and Donna, and our families.
