“ *Connie and Family,
Sorry to read of the loss of your mom. My favorite story of your mom was how she said your dad always made it over to her side of the bed after falling asleep every night. She would simply (!?!) get up, walk around the bed, and get in the other side before she ended up on the floor. That story still makes me smile. Knowing your mom for a short time, I suspect it was true. She was a delightful lady.*

“ To Laura's Family, I am sure glad they put me at the same table as Laura when I got to Elizabeth Scott. I was the only man with three ladies. We got to be good friends, I used to go back to the Nursing Home to see her. My two daughters enjoyed Laura also. I got the COVID 19 in July 2020, they took me to St Luke's in an ambulance, I never went back there. Bucher's couldn't decide if they wanted me back so my son and wife took me to live with them, I'm still here. I'm glad I got to meet all of you her family. Hal Griffin

“ Laura was my other mom. When mom and dad, Joe, Connie and I would go on vacations. Playing cards, traveling, and oh so many others I cherished when I would visit her with my cousin Sally. Many conversations on the phone over the last 19 years. She will be in my heart.

“Corky and I enjoyed our Sunday visits with Aunt Laura, We learned so much more than we had already known about her, Earl, Ed and Paul's young life. So many interesting stories, some happy, some filled with hardship and sadness. Her and Joe's trips in their Airstream. Many trips out west and a lot of other states in the U.S. The pandemic took away a year of visits, but we were happy when we could visit again. She was the nicest and most sincere and honest woman. She was well liked at Elizabeth Scott and by all of her family members. Thank you, Aunt Laura for the conversations and stories, We will cherish the memories. When we got ready to leave our visits she would tell us thank you and that she appreciated us coming to see her and then she would tell Corky, "he better behave himself". Gotta love that! She will be missed. We love You, Aunt Laura, Linda and Corky

Mom loved you like her own, and she should have. We were so blessed that Mom had family nearby who were so attentive to her. We cannot ever thank you enough for the way you enriched her life

“ To Laura's family,
We have wonderful memories with Laura and her family from growing up. I saw her with My Mother about 5 years ago and she was the same pleasant, sweet person I had always remembered. Such a good listener and so easy to talk with. She was of the greatest generation I'll have ever known in my lifetime. I know she was very loved by her family. Connie and I have reconnected over the last couple years which is a very valued relationship. We would share stories of our Mothers and send Messages to each of them from the other. I will miss that. Hopefully, we can still find other valuable ways to connect. I'm sure we can. Our Mothers grew up together so they had a lot of history. Laura and her Husband used to stop by my Mother's house in the summer and talk of their wonderful adventures. They were enjoying life. A life well lived for sure. We are offering our deepest heartfelt sympathy to the family.

I value our reconnection as well and was so glad when we found each other again. You're family! I have great memories of hanging with you and your sister when I was young, and your Mom is a treasure. I look forward to seeing you and Harry in the future. Thanks for your kind words and lovely gift
