“ Although I did not know Maria personally, I feel as though I knew her well through the Williams family. Hearing stories of her life adventures caught my attention anytime anyone would share. I will forever be thankful for Maria and her fiery spirit, as it was surely passed down to my best friend, Cori, her granddaughter. So unique and forever loved by all who knew her. May you rest in peace Oma and keep your angel wings around your family, who I love as my own.
