“ Jacob and Family....

I am so sorry for the loss of Noah. It just seems unreal. I grew up with Jacob and Noah. Jones junior high, Libbey High school and just from the South end(of Toledo) neighborhood. Noah always treated me with respect and always made sure he greeted me or just anyone he came in contact with. It was a pleasure knowing him.

“ I forgot to say noah is survived by many aunts uncles family and friends, his light lives on in you all. I just know from past experiences with this the one thing that people always seem to get upset about is the obituary. And honestly just so much is going on and so many things are happening it's hard to remember everyone, first thing complain about after my dad passed was the obituary. Just hard to remember everyone especially when you don't see and talk to some people for years. You know me, it's all love. Nothing was intentional
