“ Hard to honor such a great man, my Father's youngest brother, without many personal memories: Uncle Ralph and Aunt Jackie's wedding was "The Best, Ever", as attested to by many family testimonies, and Wow! Could they dance!" My first Frisch's drive-in meal (or was it McDonald's???) Their "babies" were really my babies, and I LOVED being their babysitter!!! On my 21st Birthday, Ralph and Jackie surprised me with appearing at my folks' dinner at the Harrison Road House in East Lansing. I will never forget it! Summers and a trip to FL when Patrick was not even a year old, I loved taking care of "my babies" when Aunt Jackie worked in the medical field. My cousin, Kathy, returned the favor, taking care of Paul when I began my Master's at Michigan State! Uncle Ralph was an inspiration for my wonderful career in education! A loving, steady role model and amazing uncle! You are loved and greatly missed, but what a wonderful life you lived❤️❤️❤️. I love you!
