“ Please accept our deepest condolences to Diane and their family. As we aged over the last few years, we no longer could enjoy our trips to Florida. I'm so sorry we lost touch. Richard was a wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather, and friend. We are now in our middle 80's, so it's getting more difficult to drive and get around, or we would come to his service. We live in Napoleon now, and I hope to contact you soon. We are sending our love and prayers for now. Sue and Ernie Tobias, (retired from Western & Southern.)
