

Richard M. Trybula

February 11, 1924 - February 7, 2015

On February 7, 2015 (just 4 days shy of his 91st birthday), Richard left this life to be reunited with his beloved wife, Reba, who predeceased him in 2002 after 55 years of marriage. He was born on February 11, 1924, in South Bend, Indiana, to the late Michael and Marianna (Kuranda) Trybula.

Richard was a proud World War II veteran who served with the U. S. Army 6th Infantry Division in the Philippine Islands. After the war, he worked for the old Studebaker Automobile Company until 1955 and then finished his career working for Libbey-Owens-Ford Company for 27 years retiring as Supervisor of the Storeroom Department in 1982. He was a devoted Dad, Papa, Grandpa, and Jah Jah. He was a long-suffering Chicago Cubs fan and a diehard Notre Dame Fighting Irish fan. He enjoyed fishing, listening to polka music (the louder, the better), and gardening.

He was preceded in death by 5 sisters and 1 brother.

He is survived by his loving daughters, Nancy (Dennis) Lewandowski and Sandra Ahmer, grandson, Dennis (Stephanie) Ahmer, and his pride and joy great-grandchildren, Lauren and Alex Ahmer.

Visitation will be on Friday, February 13 from 2-8 p.m. at Coyle Funeral Home, 1770 S. Reynolds Rd. The funeral will be held on Saturday, February 14 at 11 a.m. at Coyle, followed by burial at Resurrection cemetery.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff at DaVita Dialysis Southland for their compassionate care of "Mr. T" for the past 6 years and the staff at Hospice of Northwest Ohio (Toledo) for their aid and comfort during Richard's final journey.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Kidney Foundation of Northwest Ohio or Hospice of Northwest Ohio. Please leave a condolence message for the family at CoyleFuneralHome.com.

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities.
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so,
He called it DAD.

Kochamy cie, Dad

“ To the family of Richard. You are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Richard and my husband David went to the same dialysis center. That is how we met Richard. During one of Richards treatments Notre Dame had a big game. I took a white marker and wrote on the sole of his shoes Go Irish. He thought that was so funny. He had me do it the following week. However Notre Dame lost that game. David and I had plans to come to Richards viewing but unfortunately David was admitted to the hospital today. Richard was such a great man. He was very proud of his family. He will be missed

“ Mr Trybula was my favorite patient at Heatherdowns Rehab: always a smile on his face and a willingness to do whatever it took to get better. He was progressing so well before his decline! We had him on the schedule to make his own breakfast of egg beaters with bacon bits, English muffin with strawberry jam, and tea. I was even going to surprise him with a Notre Dame travel mug to keep his tea hot. I'm sorry for your loss--if he captured our hearts in the short time he was with us, I imagine your hearts must be broken. What a fine man! Godspeed to him. Fondly, Kim from therapy
