“Mr. Krieger was an important figure in my childhood, and honestly, he is someone that I will never forget. I was just a little kid, but him and his parents acted as if I was theirs. They treated me so well, with so much kindness, love, and generosity. You were such an important figure, and I wish I had expressed my gratitude more often. I will miss you immensely but I will never forget you. You touched so many lives, especially mine. Thank you for helping me become the man I am today. With lots of love,.

“ It is with great sadness that I write my condolences for Bob. As a little girl who liked spending time with her Grandma, Lyn Lyman, it often meant getting together with "Bobby" as well. The laughter and memories will always be fondly remembered.##imported-begin##Lisa Kudlac##imported-end##
