“ Hailu and Family,

Words can't begin to say the loss you and your family must feel. Sandra always opened her home to family and friends my mom was one of them, Helen Crowe. They shared a lot of conversation and laughter. Sandra will be dearly missed. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Hailu, Robin, Meheret, Dominique and Dagem, my deepest heartfelt condolences for the loss of our beloved Sandra. As I find solace in the awesome times we as a family shared together, I pray that you will be comforted by precious memories, also. Two days before going to her heavenly home, she profoundly spoke to Sydni about Jesus. Be at peace because she is rejoicing above. I love you. Sharon

“ Sandra welcomed others into her house with open arms, a friendly smile and an abundance of delicious homemade meals that she graciously offered. I'll always appreciate Sandra's hospitality-welcoming me and my family into her home, and immediately winning me over not just with her delicious cooking (i.e. savory sambusas and Jamaican curry chicken, especially) but with her sense of humor and candid attitude, as well. My deepest regrets for your loss and sincerest thoughts go out to you, Hailu, Robin, Meheret, Dominique, Dagem and Sophia.

“ Dear Hailu,

I just want you to know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this difficult time. I know you must have so many cherished memories to hold close while you mourn your loss. Your wife will live on in the hearts and memories of those who loved her and as I am unable to attend the service, I am sending you my heartfelt condolences.

“ I will miss Sandra's laugh and our conversations about our husbands. Rest in Peace Sandra.....you are now able to rest. I will be keeping your family in my thoughts and prayers during this time....because I know YOU were the glue that made your family who they are today. The preschool children at Toddler Tech will truly miss your calm and patient ways. Sue Lawrence

Rest in peace Miss Sandra. Although I didn't work directly with you as I am part of the infant room, I will remember your friendly smile as you passed by to take your class to the playground. Always a cheerful greeting. My deepest sympathy to your family. All are in my thoughts and prayers. Marilyn Heintschel
